The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 11 r/w 12 of POCSO Act, in Crime No.09 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner is working as a Social science teacher and the defacto complainant is working as Head Headmaster of S.N.V. Government Model Higher Secondary School. On 02.06.2025, during the class, the petitioner used to scold the girl students with unparliamentary words and abused them with sexually coloured words. Therefore, on 07.07.2025 the parents of the students had given a complaint before the Head Master against the petitioner. Further, Head Headmaster of the above said school had given a complaint before the respondent police.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner has rendered unblemished service throughout his career and there is no sexual assault on the girl students. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner and there is no sexual assault on the girl students. He further submitted that the investigation is almost completed. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that occurrence was taken place on 02.06.2025 and the complaint was given only on 15.07.2025 and also taking note of the fact that the statement under Section 183 of BNSS has been recorded and by this time most of the investigation might have been completed and also considering that there is no physical touch on the students and allegation is that the petitioner has used filthy language and the petitioner has no bad antecedents and there is no previous case pending against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of
