2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner is the son-in-law of the deceased. There was a matrimonial dispute between the petitioner and his wife, due to which, she went to her mother house. When the petitioner attempted to take her back, there was a dispute arose between the parties, in which, the petitioner is said to have stabbed the deceased with knife.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the occurrence was taken place in the mother-in-law's house and the complaint was lodged by the sister of the deceased, who is living in a separate place. Though the prosecution claims that the wife has deserted the petitioner and went to her parental house, she has not preferred any complaint and she has also not been added as witness. He further submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, he is languishing in jail from 18.06.2025.
