The petitioner/A1, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 30.07.2025 for the offences punishable under Section 296(b), 115(2), 75 of BNS r/w Section 92 of Rights of Person with Disabilities Act 2016, in Crime No.151 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 27.07.2025, at about 10.00 pm.,the victim was going to attend natural call nearby her house, at that time, the petitioner came there and hugged her and on 29.07.2025, the victim's daughter came to see her mother, the victim informed about the above incident. Hence, the defacto complainant and her family members went to the petitioner's house and questioned him. Due to which, there arose wordy quarrel, the petitioner and his family members abused the defacto complainant and her family members and also attacked with stick and caused injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner and the defacto complainant are neighbours and the petitioner is an innocent person, he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing that the petitioner is in custody from 30.07.2025, more than 94 days. Hence, he seeks bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that there are totally three accused persons involved in this case. A2 and A3 are absconding. When the victim was going to attend natural call nearby her house, at that time, the petitioner/ A1 came there and misbehaved with her. When the same was questioned by the defacto complainant, the petitioner along with other accused persons abused the defacto complainant and her family members and also attacked them with stick and caused injuries. He further submitted that the petitioner's earlier bail petitione was dismissed by the learned Principal Sessions Judge, Ramanathapuram.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the occurrence had taken place on 27.07.2025, by this time most of the investigation might have been completed and the petitioner is not having any bad antecedents and the petitioner/ Accused is in judicial custody from 30.07.2025, taking into consideration of the period of incarceration, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:
