2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto-complainant is the Transgender and she is running a food shop. On 11.07.2025, this petitioner and other accused persons were sitting near the road side food shop near Vellaikannu Theatre. This petitioner and other accused persons abused the defacto-complainant by using filthy language and assaulted the defacto-complainant. This petitioner and other accused persons have also damaged the chairs and tables in the food shop worth about Rs.20,000/-. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that co-accused/A4, A1 had already been granted bail by this Court in CrI.OP(MD).Nos.12764 & 13056 of 2025 dated 30.07.2025 and 04.08.2025. He would further submit that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide and conditions that may be imposed by this Court. He would further submit that the petitioner is in custody from 12.07.2025. Hence, he seeks bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that there are totally four accused persons, this petitioner was arrayed as Accused No.3. The defacto-complainant is a Transgender and she is running a food shop near Vellaikannu Theatre Road, Madurai. On 11.07.2025, at about 8.40 p.m. this petitioner and other accused persons caused disturbance to the customers in the said shop, when the same was questioned by the defacto-complainant, this petitioner and other accused persons were attacked the defacto-complainant and damaged the chairs and tables in the said food shop, worth about Rs.20,000/-. The defacto-complainant had sustained simple injury and she was treated as out patient and later she was discharged from the hospital. Further, there are three previous cases pending against this petitioner and investigation is almost completed. However, he objected to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also taking note of the fact that the investigation is almost completed and co-accused had already been granted bail by this Court and also considering the period of incarceration suffered by the petitioner, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on executing a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of learned Judicial Magistrate No.V, Madurai, and on further conditions that
