The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 296(b), 118(1) and 351(3) BNS in Cr.No.99 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant had love affair with first petitioner's sister, due to which, the accused have abused and assaulted him.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocents persons and they did not commit any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4.The learned Government Advocate(Crl.side) appearing for the respondent Police submits that a counter case has also been registered as against the defacto complainant and investigation is pending in both cases.

5.Considering the nature of the offence and also considering the fact that a counter case has also been registered as against the defacto complainant, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
