ORDER

I have heard the learned counsel on either side.

2. Though the writ petitioner seeks a larger relief of writ of mandamus, not only seeking cancellation of patta, which according to the petitioner, has been illegally transferred in the name of the his brother/ legal heirs, but also, forbearing respondents from entertaining registration in respect of said survey numbers and for taking action against respondents 8 to 12, who are private respondents for preparation of sale of properties in the said survey numbers. I see no reason to entertain the writ petition insofar as the reliefs pertaining to forbearing registration and for taking action against the private respondents in exercise of powers under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. However, with regard to the request of the writ petitioner, to cancel the patta which, according to the petitioner, has been illegally issued to the private respondents, the writ petition is certainly maintainable.
