this petition seeking bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the deceased in this case is a college mate of the petitioner. The deceased married another person and her husband is working in abroad. The petitioner herein was having extra-marital affair with the deceased and he had coerced her and on account of the same, the deceased committed suicide.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, he is languishing in jail from 27.06.2025.

4.The learned Government Advocate(Crl.side) appearing for the respondent opposes for grant of bail on the ground that the petitioner has coerced the defacto complainant to have physical relationship with him and called her over phone just two hours prior to the occurrence.

5.It appears that the investigation agency has not collected any other material, apart from the phone call details. Considering the period of incarceration, this Court
