This petitioner's name was not found place in the FIR. This petitioner is an uncle of the first accused. A false case has been implicated against this petitioner by the respondent police. This petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner is ready and willing to abide any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. He would further submit that the petitioner is in custody from 27.06.2025, more than 68 days. Hence, he seeks bail.

4. The learned Counsel appearing for the intervener would submit that the defacto-complainant's husband is the victim who sustained grievous injuries and his left hand was amputated by the gruesome attack of the accused persons. In the result of the gruesome attack of the accused persons, the victim had sustained 23 cut injuries. The victim's left hand was amputate and his right leg was fractured. The victim's wife so far spent more than Rs.20,00,000/- for his medical treatment. Now, the victim's wife is also facing life threat, some of the accused persons are not yet arrested by the respondent police. If the petitioner/accused No.6 is released on bail he will threaten and tamper the witnesses. Hence, he prays to dismiss the present bail petition.

5. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that there are totally 11 accused persons were involved in this case. This petitioner was arrayed as Sixth accused. In this case, Accused Nos.1,2,3 and 6 were arrested on 27.06.2025, Accused Nos.5,7 and 9 were surrendered and they are in judicial custody and the Accused Nos.8 and 10 were absconding. All the accused persons brutally attacked the defacto-complainant's husband, he had sustained 17 cut injuries all over his body, his left hand was amputated and his right leg was fractured. This petitioner is having eight previous cases. In this case, Accused No.3 was enlarged on bail by the Juvenile Justice Board in CrI.MP.No.209/2025. The offences committed by the accused persons are grave in nature. If the petitioner released on bail, there is every possibility to threaten the witnesses and tamper the evidence. Hence, he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also taking note of the fact that there is only limited overtact against this petitioner and after the occurrence, the injured person discharged from hospital on 08.07.2025, the petitioner/accused No.6 is in judicial custody from 27.06.2025, taking into consideration of the period of incarceration, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:
