2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto-complainant's daughter is the wife of this petitioner. This petitioner suspected the character of his wife and he often quarrelled with her wife and harassed her by stating that she could not give birth of male child. On 29.05.2025, this petitioner has assaulted his wife with burning log at her private parts and beaten her with wooden log and broken her right leg, she sustained severe injuries and admitted in hospital. On 03.06.2025, the defacto-complainant's daughter died at hospital. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit the deceased developed extra marital affair with another person and though the petitioner warned her, she has not mended her ways. The petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner is ready and willing to abide any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. He would further submit that the petitioner is in custody from 04.06.2025 nearly 68 days.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that this petitioner is the husband of the deceased, they have three female children. This petitioner have harassed her wife stating that she could not give birth to a male child and also this petitioner suspected the character of his wife. On 29.05.2025, this petitioner has assaulted his wife with burning log at her private parts, beaten her with the wooden log and broken her leg. The deceased sustained severed injuries and admitted in hospital. On 03.06.2025, the defacto-complainant's daughter died at hospital. This petitioner alone committed the offence and hence A2 and A3 i.e., father and mother of this petitioner names were deleted from the FIR. It is a case of brutal murder. There is no previous case against this petitioner. However, he objected to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also taking note of the fact that in this case, initially A2 and A3 names were added in the FIR and subsequently their names were deleted from the FIR, this petitioner is in judicial custody from 04.06.2025, by this time most of the investigation might have been completed, there is no previous case against this petitioner, taking into
