2. The case of the prosecution is that on 24.07.2025, at about 9.00 p.m., while the de-facto complainant, who is a driver at AJ Hospital in Manapparai, was travelling, the accused intercepted the de-facto complainant, abused him in filthy language, and poured petrol on him. Hence, a case was registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and is in no way connected with the alleged occurrence as stated by the prosecution. He, however, submitted that the petitioner is willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that there are totally three accused persons in this case and the petitioner has been arrayed as A3. A1 and A2, who are juveniles, were produced before the Juvenile Justice Court and subsequently released. He further submitted that the injured was treated only as an outpatient. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of the offence, and also taking note of the fact two of the co-accused, who are juveniles, were produced before the Juvenile Justice Court and subsequently released, and that the injured was treated only as an outpatient, and that as the date
