2. At today's hearing, learned Additional Government Pleader has placed on record an order of the Tahsildar. The said order was purportedly issued in March 2024, but it is evident on examining the signature that it is dated 18.09.2025. In view of such order, however, this writ petition has been rendered infructuous.

3. Accordingly, this writ petition is disposed of by permitting the petitioner to assail the order before the Revenue Divisional Officer. If the order is assailed within 30 days from today, it shall be received and disposed of on merits within four months from the date of receipt thereof after providing a reasonable opportunity to all parties concerned. No costs.
