4. A perusal of the impugned order would indicate the petitioner effectively participated in the enquiry before the 3rd respondent and a copy of the impugned order was also marked to the petitioner. Therefore, there is no violation of principles of natural justice to enable the petitioner to approach this Court straight away by passing the remedy of appeal.

5. In view of the same, this Court is not inclined to entertain this writ petition. Accordingly, the writ petition stands dismissed. However, liberty is granted to the petitioner to file an appeal before the District Revenue Officer (DRO) within a period of two weeks from today. If any such appeal is filed by the petitioner, the same shall be disposed of by District Revenue Officer (DRO) as expeditiously as possible.

6. The writ petition stands dismissed with the above observations.
No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
