The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 118(1), 351(3) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS) 2023, in Crime No.223 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 05.08.2025, the petitioner came to the house of one Manivel which is opposite to the house of the defacto complainant. Since the said Manivel was not present at home, the defacto complainant informed the situation at the petitioner and asked for the reason why the petitioner has come to enquire about him in the night time, a wordy quarrel arose between them. At that time, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant and pushed him down. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that there are two accused in this case and the petitioner is arrayed as Accused No.1. Accused No.2 was arrested and he is still in custody. The petitioner along with other accused went to the defacto complainant's house and quarrelled with him. The defacto complainant sustained injury and admitted to the hospital on 05.08.2025 and discharged from the hospital on 10.08.2025. There is no previous case against the petitioner. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, and also the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and also the fact that the petitioner has no bad antecedents, and also taking into account of the fact that by this time, material part of the investigation might have been completed, custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not necessary this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of his arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.2, Karur, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the
