The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 115(2) & 74 of BNS, 2023, in Crime No.300 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 06.06.2025 at about 06.30 p.m., the defacto complainant and her mother-in-law at their home, at that time, the petitioners came there and abused the defacto complainant and her mother-in-law in filthy language and attacked them with knife and caused injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that due to family dispute, a false case has been given. He further submitted that the 2nd petitioner has given a complaint before the respondent police against the husband of the defacto complainant and others and the same was registered in Crime No.301 of 2025. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready and willing to abide by any conditions which may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that no one was sustained injuries and the investigation is almost completed. He further submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioners. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that no one was sustained injuries and the investigation has been almost completed and it is a case in counter, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of their arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court, Periyakulam, Theni District, on condition that each of the petitioner shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or to the Police Officer, who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate Court, Periyakulam, Theni District, and on further conditions that:
