3. When the matter is taken up for hearing today, the petitioner appeared before this Court in person. We enquired the petitioner. During the course of enquiry, she stated that she is working in the hospital and her mother is in the old age home.

4. Heard both sides and perused the records.

5. Considering all the above stated facts, this Court is not inclined to interfere with the order passed by the second respondent.

6. Accordingly, this petition is dismissed. Consequently, the connected writ miscellaneous petition criminal is also closed.
