under “Man missing”. During the course of investigation, it came to light that the alleged missing person has eloped with the third respondent. It was also found that the missing person has borrowed money from several persons and he was unable to repay the same and thereby he had voluntarily gone. He further submitted that the petitioner's husband is not under illegal detention of anybody and investigation is going on.

4.Recording the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, this Habeas Corpus Petition stands closed. However, the second respondent is directed to continue with the investigation in Crime No.255 of 2025. The Deputy Superintendant of Police, Thirumangalam, is directed to monitor the investigation.
