4.As per Office report, dated 08.10.2025, it is noted that service report is awaited on behalf of the respondent and proof of service has also not been filed by the learned counsel for the petitioner with regard to service of notice on the respondent.

5.Mr.T.Indrachithu, learned counsel for the petitioner prays one week time to file proof of service with regard to service of notice on the respondent.

6.Accordingly, as prayed for by the learned counsel for the petitioner, this Court grants one week further time to file proof of service with regard to service of notice on the respondent by way of supplementary affidavit. In the meantime, Office is directed to furnish fresh service report for the respondent.

7.Put up this case 'for orders' on 17.10.2025 before the appropriate Bench."

3.Today, when the matter is being taken up, Mr.T.Indrachithu, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that in compliance of the order dated 10.10.2025, private notice has been issued to the respondent and in this regard, he has already filed a proof of service, which is taken on record.

4.As per Office report, dated 16.10.2025, it is noted that service report is awaited for the respondent and proof of service has also been filed for the same by the learned counsel for the petitioner. However, when the matter is being taken up, neither the respondent nor any counsel representing the respondent
