The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 9(B)(1)(a) of the Indian Explosives Act, 1884 in Crime No.233 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that based on secret information the respondent police and Village Administrative Officer, Kananjampatti Village had conducted search at that time, they found that this petitioner illegally stored the crackers in his house without having any valid license or permit. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that this petitioner not manufactured any crackers, this petitioner was falsely implicated in the present case. The petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. The learned Counsel for the petitioner further submits that this petitioner is ready and willing to deposit Rs.50,000/-, to that effect, he filed a memo before this Court dated 21.08.2025. The petitioner is ready and willing to abide any conditions which may be imposed by this Hon'ble Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that this petitioner illegally stored the crackers without having any valid license or permit. The entire properties were recovered by the respondent, the properties are worth about
