Rajapalayam, at that time, the petitioner along with A3 have attempted to remove the front side number plate of the car bearing Registration No.TN 43 D 2430 and on suspicion that the respondent police have searched the vehicle and found 11 bundles each appearing to consist of Rs.100 currency notes affixed on the top and bottom. However, a closer inspection reveals that the inner content of each bundle consisted of white blank papers. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that co-accused/A3 had already been granted bail by this Court in CrI.OP(MD).No.13152 of 2025 dated 06.08.2025 and the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions which may be imposed by this Court. He further submitted that the petitioner is in judicial custody from 10.07.2025. Hence, he seeks bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that there are totally three accused persons involved in this case and the petitioner is arrayed as A2. He further submitted that there are five previous cases pending against the petitioner and A1 is absconding. He further submitted that co-accused/A3 had already been granted bail by this Court and the investigation is almost completed. However, he opposed for grant of bail to the petitioner.
