2. The case of the respondent/complainant is that the petitioner borrowed a loan of Rs.4,00,000/- from the respondent on 14.03.2013 agreeing to repay the same with interest at the rate of Rs.1.00/- per hundred per month and had issued post dated cheque bearing number 326962 for an amount of Rs.4,00,000/- dated 30.07.2013. When the respondent has presented the cheque for collection on 30.07.2013, the same was returned as "Funds Insufficient" on 30.07.2013. Therefore, the respondent has sent legal notice on 05.08.2013 to the petitioner demanding repayment of the amount covered by the cheque and the same was received by the petitioner on 08.08.2013. Despite receiving the notice, the petitioner had neither sent a reply nor repay the said amount. Therefore, the respondent has filed a private complaint for the offence under Section 138 of Negotiable Instruments Act against the petitioner.

3. It is seen from the records that the petitioner has been convicted by the trial Court in C.C.No.540 of 2013 for the alleged offence punishable under Section 138 of Negotiable Instruments Act and sentenced to undergo Simple Imprisonment for a period of 6 months and also directed to pay a compensation of Rs.4,00,000/- within one month, in default, to undergo Simple Imprisonment for one month. Challenging the above said conviction and sentence, the petitioner has filed an appeal in Crl.A.No.38 of 2023 on the file of the Principal District Court, Karur and the learned Principal District Judge, Karur, by confirming the conviction and sentence, dismissed the appeal. Being dissatisfied with the dismissal of the appeal, the petitioner has preferred the present Criminal Revision Case along with the above miscellaneous petition seeking suspension of sentence.

4. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that there are several infirmities in the prosecution case and further there are contradictions in material particulars between the evidence of the prosecution witnesses.

5. This Court has carefully considered the contentions putforth by the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and also perused the materials available on record.

6. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner pointed out that certain infirmities and inconsistencies in this case and also certain contradictions in material particulars. The fact remains that there are arguable points involved in this criminal revision and further the criminal revision is not likely to be taken up for final hearing in the near future and as such, this Court is of the considered view that the petitioner herein is entitled to the relief of grant of suspension of sentence.

7. In the result, the Criminal Miscellaneous Petition is ordered. Accordingly, the relief of suspension of sentence is granted to the petitioner on the following conditions:-

(i) The petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate cum Fast Track Court, Karur;
