2. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has complied with the conditions (i) and (ii). He further submitted that the petitioner is a partner in a horse training school, he is having a property situated in the said street and is also constructing a restaurant therein. 3. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) submitted that the petitioner has been complying with the condition for nearly 16 weeks.

4. In view of the above, this Court is inclined to relax that portion of the condition (iii) which prohibited the petitioner from entering Naaadimuthu Street, Pudukottai and the same is relaxed. However, the restriction prohibiting the petitioner from entering the defacto complainant's house or workplace, as well as the victim's house or the school where she is studying, shall continue to remain in force. As far as the condition (ii) is concerned, since the petitioner has complied with the same for more than 16 weeks, the said condition is also relaxed. Since the trial has commenced, the petitioner is directed to appear before the Trial Court on hearing dates without fail.
