2.The above case was registered as against this petitioner for the offence under Section 69 of BNS, 2023, on the complaint of the second respondent/defacto complainant.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that though the above case has been registered for the offence under Section 69 of BNS, 2023, the petitioner has already married the defacto complainant and therefore, the case in Crime No. 3 of 2025 has to be quashed.

4.Mr.P.Kottaichamy, learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) takes notice for the respondent police and denied the submissions of the petitioner's counsel. According to the learned Government Advocate (Crl.side), this petitioner has filed an affidavit of undertaking before this Court that he will marry the defacto complainant, when his bail application was taken up for hearing. Thereafter, he failed to marry the defacto complaint as undertook by him before this Court. The defacto complainant has moved an application to cancel the bail granted to this petitioner and during the hearing of that petition, in order to prevent the cancellation of bail, this petitioner has married the defacto

5.The learned counsel for the defacto complainant submits that the defacto complaint is now 9 months pregnant.
