2. The case of the prosecution is that there was previous enmity between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, as a result of which, the petitioners have attacked the defacto complainant with palm stick and sickle and caused injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that there was a property dispute between them and a false case has been given. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready and willing to abide by any conditions which may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seek anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that the petitioners have attacked the defacto complainant and caused injuries. The investigation is still pending and if the petitioners are released on anticipatory bail, they may tamper the witnesses and abscond. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of the offence committed by the petitioners and the stage of the investigation, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
