JUDGMENT
(By G.R.SWAMINATHAN, J.)

Heard both sides.

2.The Executive Officer of Arulmighu Vishavanatha Swamy Temple who has been officiating as Special Officer of the petition mentioned temple namely, Arulmighu Senthatti Ayanar Temple, Keelamarainadu Village, Sivakasi Taluk, Virudhunagar District has filed this writ appeal questioning the order dated 08.04.2022 passed by the learned Single Judge in W.P.(MD)No.23698 of 2018.

3.We fail to understand as to how an Executive Officer can be said to be a person aggrieved. A writ appeal is filed under Clause 15 of the

W.A.(MD)No.1484 of 2022

Letters Patent. It specifically states that only a person aggrieved can maintain an appeal. None of the rights of the appellant herein have been infringed. He is only a Special Officer who was appointed pursuant to the direction of this Court. The learned counsel for the appellant would point out that only after the Executive Officer assumed charge as Special Officer, order was brought in the administration of the temple which otherwise was riven by internal and factional disputes.

4.The Special Officer might have filed the writ appeal in public interest and in the interest of temple and devotees. But that itself will not confer locus standi on the appellant herein. We are clearly of the view that the appellant lacks the locus standi to maintain the writ appeal. The writ appeal is dismissed as non maintainable. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
