The petitioner, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 28.06.2025 for the offences punishable under Sections 409, 465, 466, 468, 477-A of IPC and Sections.66C & 66D of Information Technology Act, 2020, in Crime No.27 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that some of the Madurai Corporation employees without getting a proper permission from the concerned officers, they have independently used user ID and password of Corporation Office computer and levy lesser tax amount from the building owners. The defacto complainant namely the Corporation Commissioner, lodged a complaint on 10.09.2024 stating that he had constituted a team to investigate unauthorized use of user IDs and passwords in the computer system to change or reduce taxes. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that this petitioner was promoted as Assistant Commissioner in the month of February 2024 and thereafter he was deputed for election duty till 28.08.2024. During those period, he was not in a position to use his official ID and password for any official duty. While the petitioner was in jail, he attained his age of superannuation and he has not permitted to relive from his service by stating the reason that this petitioner involved in the said case. This petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioner is in judicial custody from 28.06.2025, nearly 76 days. Hence, he seeks bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that this petitioner already facing the Vigilance and Anti-Corruption cases This petitioner knows the entire transaction, because the entire transactions were done through petitioner's mobile, which is evident from IP number. In this case, investigation is still in progress. Therefore, he opposed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that this petitioner attained the age of superannuation and also was in judicial custody for 76 days and also considering the period of incarceration suffered by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Madurai, and on further conditions that :-
