2.The case of the prosecution is that on 18.08.2025, due to previous enmity between the petitioner and the defacto complainant, the petitioner had attacked the defacto complainant and threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he did not commit any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Further, he submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate(Crl.side) appearing for the respondent Police submitted that the petitioner had attacked the defacto complainant and caused simple injuries. He further submitted that the investigation is almost completed. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6.Accordingly, this criminal original petition is allowed and the petitioner is
