ORDER

WEB COPY Prelude:

"This dedicated bench is for implementing the pilot project to identify and dispose of criminal cases involving offences punishable with imprisonment up to 3 years pending at trial, appeal or revision stage for more than 3 years and also offences like Section 506(ii) of IPC and others, which may carry a punishment of more than 3 years in the State of Tamil Nadu with reference to the 14 Districts coming under the Madurai Bench of Madras High Court".

2.This Dedicated Bench has taken the C.C.No.85 of 2020 on the file of the Judicial Magistrate No.II Court, Usilampatty, Madurai District as Suo motu* Special Tr.Case.(MD) No.246 of 2025 in Suo Motu W.P. (CrI.).(MD).No.1014 of 2025, upon proper scrutiny this court feels that it is a fit case for warranting the exercise of power under Article 226 of Constitution of India to quash the said C.C., which is pending for more than five years without any progress.

3.Brief facts of the prosecution case in C.C.No.85 of 2020:

In the year 31.03.2019 at 8.40 a.m., the accused committed accident, thereby the deceased sustained grivious injuries and succumbed injuries. Therefore, a case was registered in Crime No.150 of 2019 and on investigation, final report was filed for the offences punishable under Sections 279 and 304(A) IPC and the same was taken on file in C.C.No.85 of 2020 and the same is pending without trial for more than three years.

4.Discussion:

4.1 Today, the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II has appeared through video conference. The accused and the police official were present before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II Court. The accused has filed an admission petition and pleaded guilty and seeks leniency in imposing punishment.

4.2. This Court explains the contents of the accusation to the accused, and he admits the contents of the admission petition and pleads guilty. Thus, this court satisfies the admission petition filed without any coercion or threat.

4.3.In view of the above admission and pleading of guilty of the accused, and considering the material allegation made in the final report did not relate to the economic and heinous offence and his conduct is good and the charged offence is punishable with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to three years, or with fine, or with both and the case is pending for more than three years without trial and the same impinge the fair and speedy trial as envisaged under Article 21 of the Constitution of India, this Court is inclined to admit the petition and convict the accused for the offence under Sections 279 and 304(A) IPC.

5.Discussion on the question of sentence:-

The accused is aged above 39 years and having two children and now doing coolie work and he has not involved in further offence and considering the mitigating circumstances, and following the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Sunita Devi Vs. State of Bihar and another reported in 2014 SCC Online SC 984, 2025 INSC 1014 (K.Ponnammal Vs. State) and also taken into account that the victim(s) received the compensation and he/she/they also not interested in prosecuting the case and the accused also regularly appearing before the Court for the past three years and also on the reiterated the principle of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the cases of M.W.Mohiuddin V. State of Maharashtra reported in (1995) 3 SCC 567 and B.G.Goswami V. Delhi

Suo Motu TR.(MD).No.246 of 2025

Administration reported in (1974) 3 SCC 85 that delay itself amounts to punishment, which must weigh in sentencing and disposal, this court is inclined to impose fine of Rs.5,000/- with default sentence of two months simple imprisonment.

5. Accordingly, this Suo Motu Special Tr.(MD). Case stands closed on the following terms:

5.1. The accused is convicted for the offence under Sections 279 and 304(A) IPC in C.C. No.85 of 2020 on the file of the Judicial Magistrate No.II, Usilampatty.

5.2. The accused is directed to pay a fine of Rs.5,000/- before the Judicial Magistrate No.II, Usilampatty, and in default, he is directed to undergo two months simple imprisonment.
