2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant had lodged the complaint by alleging, as if, 10 unknown persons forcible trespassed into his house and attacked with stick and abused by using filthy language and threatened him. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that the petitioner is implicated is an accused based on the confession given by the co-accused and the investigation still pending. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the nature of the offence allegedly committed by the petitioner and taking note of the fact that as the date of registration of FIR is dated 12.06.2024, by this time most of the investigation might have been completed, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of
