2. The petitioner submits that he is a senior citizen, the 3rd respondent is his son, and the 4th respondent is his daughter-in-law. The petitioner had settled his property in favour of the 3rd respondent. However, after the settlement, the respondents 3 and 4 failed to take care of him, including providing food and purchasing medicines. Hence, the petitioner approached the 2nd respondent seeking cancellation of the settlement deed executed in favour of the 3rd and 4th respondents. The 2nd respondent rejected the petitioner's request. The petitioner thereafter filed an appeal before the 1st respondent, who also confirmed the order of the 2nd respondent. Aggrieved thereby, the petitioner has filed the present writ petition.

3. An undertaking affidavit has been filed, wherein in paragraph 4 it has been stated as follows:

"4. I submit that I am an Agriculture Coolie. The 4th respondent, who is my wife, is a housewife, and we have two children. We have given undertaking before the Hon'ble Court that we will provide food, medical expenses and other maintenance to the writ petitioner continuously without any failure, and recording this undertaking, the writ petition may be closed, thus render justice."
