“(18) “Religious institution” means a math, temple or specific endowment and includes, — (i) a samadhi or brindhavan; or

(ii) any other institution established or maintained for a religious purpose. Explanation.- For the purpose of this clause-

(1) “samadhi” means a place where the mortal remains of a guru, sadhu or saint is interned and used as a place of public religious worship;

(2) “brindhavan” means a place established or maintained in memory of a guru, sadhu or saint and used as a place of public religious worship, but does not include the samadhi;)

(20) “temple” means a place by whatever designation known, used as a place of public religious worship and dedicated to, or for the benefit of, or used as of right by, the Hindu community or of any section thereof, as a place of public religious worship.”

4. Tamil Nadu Hindu Religious and Charitable Endowment Act, 1959 will apply only if the institution in question is used as a place of public religious worship. In other words, the members of the Hindu community or any section thereof should be able to offer their worship as a matter of right. The petitioner claims that the temple in question is a private temple meant for worship by a few families belonging to Krishnavaga. He would add that it is a family deity that is being worshipped. If that be so, the petitioner may have to get the declaration under Section 63(a) of the Act before the Joint Commissioner that the institution in question is not a religious institution within the meaning of statute.

6. The Writ Petition is disposed of accordingly. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
