ORDER

WEB COPY Prelude:

“This dedicated bench is for implementing the pilot project to identify and dispose of criminal cases involving offences punishable with imprisonment up to 3 years pending at trial, appeal or revision stage for more than 3 years and also offences like Section 506(ii) of IPC and others, which may carry a punishment of more than 3 years in the state of Tamil Nadu with reference to the 14 Districts coming under the Madurai Bench of Madras High Court”.

2. This Dedicated Bench has taken the C.C.No.1181 of 2022 on the file of the Judicial Magistrate Court, Thirumangalam Taluk, Madurai as Suo motu Special Tr.Case.(MD) No.5066 of 2025 in Suo Motu W.P. (Crl.).(MD).No.1014 of 2025, upon proper scrutiny and suitability as a fit case warranting the exercise of power under Article 226 of Constitution of India to pass suitable order in the said C.C., pending more than three years without any precedent value in this pilot project.

3. Brief facts of the prosecution case in C.C.No.1181 of 2022:

On 03.01.2020, at about 09.00 p.m, the accused is said to have waylaid the complainant and robbed a sum of Rs.180/- from the shirt pocket of the complainant at knife point. Therefore, a case was registered in Crime No.4 of 2021 for the offences punishable under Section 387 of IPC, and upon completion of investigation, final report filed and the same was taken on file in C.C.No.1181 of 2022 and the same was pending without trial for more than three years.

4. Discussion:

4.1 Today, the learned Principal District Judge has appeared through video conference. The accused and the police official were present before the learned Principal District Court. The accused has filed an admission petition and pleaded guilty and seeks leniency in imposing punishment.

4.2. This Court explains the contents of the accusation to the accused, and the accused admits the contents of the admission petition and pleads guilty. Thus, this court satisfies the admission petition filed without any coercion or threat.

4.3. In view of the above admission and pleading of guilty of the accused, and considering the material allegation made in the final report did not relate to the economic and heinous offence and his conduct is good and the charged offence is punishable with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to three years, or with fine, or with both and the case is pending for more than three years without trial and the same impinge the fair and speedy trial as envisaged under Article 21 of the Constitution of India, this Court is inclined to admit the petition and convict the accused for the offence under Section 387 of IPC, and sentenced to the imprisonment which the accused had already undergone. There is no bar to initiate the confiscation proceedings under the relevant statutes by following the procedure stated in the relevant Act.

5. Discussion on the question of sentence:-

The accused is aged about 29 years and he is in custody for a period of 4 days and he has not involved in further offence and considering the mitigating circumstances, and following the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Sunita Devi Vs. State of Bihar and another reported in 2014 SCC Online SC 984, 2025 INSC 1014 (K.Ponnammal Vs. State) and also taken into account that the accused also regularly appearing before the Court and also on the reiterated the principle of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the cases of M.W.Mohiuddin V. State of Maharashtra reported in (1995) 3 SCC 567 and B.G.Goswarmi V. Delhi Administration reported in (1974) 3 SCC 85
