Heard both sides.

2. Even though the petitioner would allege that there are encroachments in a channel, we are satisfied that the private respondents herein have only put up bridges in front of the respective houses and that too, after getting permission from the concerned authorities. Copies of the permission letters have been enclosed.

3. It is seen that they were issued wayback in the year 2011. Case for issuance of any direction has not been made out. This writ petition stands dismissed. No costs.
