The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 9(B)(1)(a) of the Indian Explosives Act, 1884, in Crime No.253 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners' Fireworks company was running and their employees were manufacturing the crackers without license. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready and willing to abide by any conditions which may be imposed by this Court. He further submitted that A3 was arrested and released on bail. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that the investigation is almost completed and there is no previous case pending against the petitioners. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

CRL OP(MD). No.14480 of 2025

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the investigation has been almost completed and there are no previous cases pending against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court No.2, Sattur, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate Court No.2, Sattur, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[b] the petitioners shall report before the respondent police daily at 05.30 p.m., until further orders

[c]the petitioners shall not tamper with the evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d]the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e]On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners is released on bail by the learned
