divorce and he has also filed IA No.60/2022 claiming visitation rights. The trial Court vide its order impugned permitted the respondent to see his child in the Court premises monthly once. Apart from that Rs.5,000/- was ordered to be deposited in the Court per month for visitation expenses and on such deposit being made, the respondent is permitted to see the child every month. Challenging the same, the petitioner is before this Court.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that if the respondent is given visitation rights, he will create unnecessary trouble to the petitioner and her family members and hence, prays for interference.

4. The learned counsel for the respondent on the other hand would submit that the respondent will not create any issue in the Court premises or in the residence of the petitioner and he will simply see his child by depositing the said amount as ordered by the trial Court.

5. I have considered the rival submissions and perused the materials available on record.

6. (*)"In view of the submission made and considering the age of the child/daughter, the trial Court has rightly ordered for visitation rights to the respondent/husband.
