police for the offences punishable under Sections 191(2), 296(b), 127(2), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(3) BNS in Crime No.412 of 2025, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that business rivalry the petitioner herein along with other said to have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, assaulted him and also threatened with dire consequences . Hence the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. He seeks this Court to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that petitioner herein along with other said to have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, assaulted him and also threatened with dire consequences, thereby he would oppose to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. However he fairly concedes that the injured has been discharged from the hospital.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of
