The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 303, 329, 296(b) and 351(2) of BNS in Crime No. not known, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The defacto complainant is the mother of the petitioner. The father of the petitioner died and thereafter the petitioner was living separately from his mother. While so, on 25.08.2025 the petitioner trespassed into her house and demanded his share since the defacto complainant refused, the petitioner had taken 12 sovereigns of gold chain from her neck and abused her using filthy

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence. He would further submit that the defacto complainant sustained only simple injuries and also discharged from the hospital. He would also submit that both the petitioner and the defacto complainant are son and mother. He seeks this Court to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent
