The petitioner/A2, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 115(2), 133, 351(3) and 303(2) BNS in Crime No.611 of 2025, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that petitioner along with other accused said to have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also attacked him due to previous enmity and also taken away a gold chain and cell phone . Hence the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence. He seeks this Court to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that investigation is pending in this case and 22 previous cases are pending against the pending against the petitioner, thereby he would oppose to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital , this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of
