The petitioner/A6, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 189(2), 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(3) of BNS, 2023, in Crime No.236 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and the defacto complainant are college students. On 26.08.2025, due to dispute with regard to riding a bike came at high speed, the petitioners and other accused persons attacked the defacto complainant with hands, belts and stones. Hence, a case was registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He, however, submitted that the petitioner is willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that there are no previous cases registered against the petitioner and no one sustained any injury. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of the offence, and also taking note of the fact that there are no previous cases pending against the petitioner and they are students and no one sustained any injury, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.
