4. On instructions, learned Additional Government Pleader submits that the survey could not be conducted in view of objections raised by neighbouring land owners.

5. Since objections have been raised by neighbouring land owners, it is just and necessary that they be put on notice before any action is taken on the petitioner's application.

6. Subject to this condition, this writ petition is disposed of by directing the first and second respondents to consider the petitioner's application for survey and take necessary steps after putting the petitioner and the owners of neighbouring lands, including the objectors, on notice. The entire exercise shall be concluded within twelve weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. If necessary, the jurisdictional police shall provide necessary assistance to the revenue officials. No costs.
