COMMON ORDER

(Order of the Court was made by the Hon'ble Rmt.Teekaa Raman J.)

These two sub applications have been filed to reopen and to substitute the name in the Contempt Petition.

2. The operative portion of the order passed by the Hon'ble Division Bench of this Court on 11.03.2024 in Cont.P.(MD).No.195 of 2024 reads as under:-

“2. Today, when the matter is taken up for hearing, the learned Government Advocate appearing for the respondents has made a submission that the respondents initiated action by issuing necessary notice to the encroachers on 15.02.2024 and the building in question is now under the lock and seal. In the meantime, the building owner filed a Writ Petition before this Court, wherein this Court directed the building owner to approach the Town and Country Planning Authority to seek further remedy. Pursuant to the same, the building owner approached the 1st respondent seeking regularization and the same is pending. Therefore, there is no willful disobedience as alleged by the petitioner.”

3. After perusing the operative portion of the above said order dated 11.03.2024 which is self-explanatory and hence, we do not find any reason to allow these applications. Therefore, these Sub Applications stands closed.
