The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 49, 127(2), 296(b), 133, 324(4), 115(2), 351(2) of BNS 2023 and Section 4 of TNPHW Act, in Crime No.90 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and the de-facto complainant are husband and wife. After their marriage, the petitioner obtained the jewels of the de-facto complainant and used them for his business. Thereafter, a dispute arose between them on account of the alleged illegal relationship of the petitioner with the 2nd /Sheela accused, which led to the filing of a divorce petition by the petitioner, but the same was dismissed. Subsequently, on 18.06.2025, the petitioner had trespassed into the de-facto complainant's house, abused her in filthy language, and assaulted her with his hands. Hence, the present case was registered.

CRL OP(MD). No.15193 of 2025

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that there was a family dispute, a false case has been given. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions which may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner and the investigation is almost completed. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the investigation has been almost completed, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.
