ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

For Anticipatory Bail in Crime No.189 of 2025 on the file of the Respondent Police.

ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioners/Accused, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 61(2), 316(2) and 318(4) of BNS, 2023, in Crime No.189 of 2025, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners and other accused persons obtained an advance amount of Rs.50,000/- for transporting molasses in lorries bearing Registration Nos.TN-41-C-4617 and TN-02-L-2224. However, after taking the molasses, the same was not delivered to the defacto complainant's company and also the advance amount of Rs.50,000/- was not returned to the defacto complainant's company, thereby cheated him. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent Police submits that totally there are four accused, the petitioner was arrayed as A-3. He further submitted that the petitioners obtained an advance amount of Rs.50,000/- for transporting molasses from one place to another. However, after taking the molasses, the same was not delivered to the defacto complainant's company nor was the advance amount of Rs.50,000/- returned. Therefore, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the co-accused has already been granted bail, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
