ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioners/A1 and A2, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(3) of BNS, 2023, in Crime No.32 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that when the defacto complainant was cattle grazing in the agricultural land, at that time, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and assaulted him with deadly weapons. Hence, a case was registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioners were already granted anticipatory bail by the trial Court in Crl.M.P.No.1764 of 2025 and they could not produce the sureties in time. Hence, they filed this present petition. He, however, submitted that the petitioners are willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that the injured person has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of the offence, and also taking note of the fact that the injured person has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to
