BNS in Crime No.310 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that first accused is the friend of the defacto-complainant and the petitioner said to have approached and demanded money from the defacto-complainant for getting job in Singapore and on his instruction, on 17.08.2024, the defacto-complainant handed over Rs.50,000/- cash to Accused No.3 and thereafter, the defacto-complainant transferred the balance amount of Rs.2,50,000/- to the bank account of the second accused and this petitioner failed to provide any job opportunity to the defacto-complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that there totally 3 accused persons, this petitioner was arrayed as Accused No.1. This petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner is ready and willing to abide any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. He would further submit that the petitioner is in custody from 19.08.2025, nearly 24 days. Hence, he seeks bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that this petitioner and other accused persons were promised the defacto-complainant for getting job at Singapore and demanded money from the defacto-complainant, believing their words, the defacto-complainant gave huge amount to the accused persons. Later, the accused persons had swindled the amount and they failed to arrange any job opportunity to the defacto-complainant. It is the case of job-racketing. The cheated amount is not yet recovered. The third accused was enlarged on anticipatory bail by this Court. In this case, investigation is not yet completed. There is no previous case against this petitioner. If the petitioner is released on bail, he may threaten the witnesses and tamper the evidences. Hence, he opposed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the occurrence was happened on 17.08.2024, this petitioner was arrested on 19.08.2025, by this time most of the investigation might have been completed, there is no previous case against this petitioner and also considering the period of incarceration suffered by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Kumbakonam and on further conditions that :-
