Heard both sides.

2.The order impugned in the writ petition can very well be questioned before the appellate authority. The petitioner is also having sufficient time to do so.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner states that the explanation given by the assessee has not been considered by the assessing officer.

W.P(MD)No.25255 of 2025

This point also can very well be canvassed before the appellate authority.

The appellate authority would be obliged to consider the explanation to be given by the petitioner herein. In fiscal matters, the Writ Court should think twice before permitting the assessee to by-pass the appeal remedy.

4. Granting liberty to the writ petitioner to move the appellate authority, this writ petition is disposed of. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
