filthy language and also assaulted him wooden stick and thereby, he caused injuries. Hence, a case was registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that it is a case in counter case. He further submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He, however, submitted that the petitioners are willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail.

4. Ms. S. Narmadha, learned counsel for the intervener vehemently opposed for granting anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that the injured persons has been
