ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 192, 353(1)(b), 353(2), 356(2), 356(3) of BNS and 67 of the Information Technology Act, 2000 in Crime No.735 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto-complainant is an advocate and political cadre in Karur District. On 16.08.2025, the petitioner published a message in his social media account and spread a fake message regarding the clash between the doctor and political party. The said social media message would create a law and order problem and intentionally induce the clash between the public and doctors. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the respondent police lodged a false case against this petitioner. The petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner is ready and willing to abide any conditions which may be imposed by this Hon'ble Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit this petitioner posted message against the defacto-complainant in social media. In this case, investigation is not yet completed. There is no previous case against this petitioner. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case there is no previous case against the
