The petitioners/A5 and A6, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 191(2), 126(2), 296(b), 115(2) and 109 of BNS, Act, 2023, in Crime No.177 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, the petitioners and other accused intercepted the bike, which drove by the defacto complainant and abused him in filthy language and criminally intimidated him. Hence, a case was registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He, however, submitted that the petitioners are willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that the first petitioner(A5) was arrested by the respondent Police. He further submitted that there are four previous cases registered against the petitioners. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Recording the submission of the learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that the first petitioner(A5) was arrested by the respondent Police, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed as infructuous in respect of the first petitioner.

6. Insofar as the second petitioner is concerned, taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of the offence, and also taking note of the fact that the most of the investigation might have been completed, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the second petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, this petition is partly allowed and the second petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court, Melur, on condition that the second petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to
