2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner said to have illegally transported Karambai sand using forged trip sheet. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions which may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that there are no previous cases pending against the petitioner and the charge sheet was filed and trial commenced and the petitioner has complied the conditions imposed in the interim anticipatory bail. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and since the petitioner is complying the conditions imposed in the interim
