3.The notice affords an opportunity of seven days, which, by virtue of Act 25 of 2024, stands extended to 15 days for the noticee to respond.

4.Be that as it may, even the period of 15 days is long gone. We are of the view of the Writ Petition is pre mature and it is for the petitioner to respond to the authority by submitting her explanation. Instead of doing so, she has approached this Court and that too, long beyond the period granted soliciting her reply.

5.Learned counsel for the petitioner, faced with this position, seeks a short extension of time to enable the petitioner to file her reply. Accordingly, time is extended by one week from today within which time the reply shall be filed.

6.This Writ Petition is dismissed with liberty. No costs. Consequently, connected Miscellaneous Petitions are closed.
